United to Transform

During the March 4, 2025 Public Input Session, participants contributed insights and the following comments.

prevention shoul Imited desire to understand ing learn from the past thoughtful and sustainable solutions resources your story ma be locality ma ifficult, but doable evel collaborate strategically f opportunity and change ave money through prevention ternative funding opportunities by systems are complex and interconnected to limited action uture is hard to imagine, but worth reaching for curious and inspired g pecially schools motivated to act